CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

MARCH 17, 2006.

P.C.

1. This Appeal from Order takes exception to the interim order passed by the Trial Court dated 9th November 2001, injuncting the Appellant from taking any action against the Respondents on the basis of notice dated 2nd July 2001 till the pendency of the Suit.

2. No interim order has been passed in the present Appeal while issuing notice. In other words, Appellant Corporation has suffered the interim injunction granted by the Trial Court so far.

3. At this distance of time, in my opinion, the appropriate course is to direct the Trial Court to dispose of the suit expeditiously. That will meet the ends of justice. The Trial Court is directed to ensure that the Suit is finally disposed of not later than December 2006. The parties shall extend full cooperation to the Trial Court for early disposal of the Suit. The Trial Court may refuse request for adjournment of the hearing of the Suit if it is of the opinion that the same is not appropriate or for sufficient cause.

4. Appeal disposed of on the above terms.

A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.
